

International Business

The International Business Certificate program is designed to introduce students to concepts in the global business environment. Technology lends itself to conducting international business and commerce. An international business emphasis will expose students to international management, marketing, and trade policy and procedures.

Careers in International Business

- Communication Technology
- E-Commerce
- Finance
- Foreign Trade
- Information Systems
- Management
- Marketing/Sales
- Supply Chain

Employers of International Business Majors

- International Trade Organizations
- International/Multi-national Corporations
- National Corporations
- Computer and IT Businesses

Professional Associations and Affiliations

Agency for International Trade Information and Corporation www.acici.org/aitic/index.html

Business Counsel for International Understanding www.bciu.org/

Careers in Business
www.careers-in-business.com

Computer Jobs
www.tech-jobs.com

Federation of International Trade Associations www.iaswww.com/ODP/Business/International_Business_and_Trade/Associations

Internet World: Voice of E-Business www.internetworld.com

The Internationalist: International business, Trade, and Investment www.internationalist.com/welcome.php3

International Executives Association www.ieaweb.com

World Trade Organization
www.wto.org